Biography

Tarrabelle Murphy

Growing up as an active child, a swimmer and team sports enthusiast, Tarrabelle discovered the circus community as a teenager. Founding Zap Circus with Rusty in 2009, she created a place where all of her skills could combine to bring inspiration to the masses. Performing across the globe her skills include hula hooping, acrobatics, fire-eating and a passion for adventure. As a performer, director and producer she loves bringing unique shows to a wide-variety of audiences.

Russell Hammond

Rusty has performed all over the world. Studying Chemical Engineering and Environmental Science at University, before going on to create Zap Circus with Tarrabelle in 2009. His talents include juggling, acrobatics, hand-balancing, fire-eating, prop creation, dad jokes and a love of sustainability! He uses his platform to bring performances to regional communities, as growing up in a small town he strongly believes in the power of shows to help bring communities together.
